Crossfire International 6 month mission to Africa Sept 2024-Mar 2025

Sawubona! My family and I have just returned to South Africa from Ethiopia and we wanted to send out an update and share just a few of the many testimonies from our past several months of intense travel and ministry across the 8 African nations of South Africa, Lesotho, Eswatini, Mozambique, Botswana, Namibia, Zimbabwe, and Ethiopia.

My family and I drove from Johannesburg, South Africa to Lesotho, Eswatini, Mozambique, and to Botswana. We then flew from South Africa to Namibia, Zimbabwe and to Ethiopia. In every one of these 8 African countries we trained pastors and leaders, implemented Crossfire in their churches, led teams on the streets in evangelism, led Crossfire evangelistic crusades, and ministered in the churches. Praise God we saw thousands of people come to know Jesus as their Savior during this time including Muslims, drug addicts, and gang members.

During the times of evangelism in Namibia and Zimbabwe we went into bars and led drunks and drug addicts to Jesus. Many of them were immediately sober, visibly looked different, and described a supernatural peace they felt after praying the sinners prayer and receiving Christ! We also saw powerful times of ministry take place at the end of the crusades after the salvation altar calls with extended times of worship, prayer for the sick, as well as prayer for people to be delivered and filled with the Holy Spirit.

In Mozambique, the language is Portuguese, and because there are some words that are the same between Spanish and Portuguese, I was able to preach, train leaders and lead people to Christ in Spanish in Mozambique.

We are now back here in South Africa just in time for Christmas and the new year, and after the new year we will spend our remaining time in South Africa training new leaders here in South Africa as well as in the other countries, speaking in churches, and visiting some of the new Crossfire South Africa cell groups.
